

2023 CCP WORKSHOP

Mackawisiwin ka otcian

The strength of our roots

For teams in preplanning and planning

November 7–8, in Pikogan

FNQLSDI
FIRST NATIONS OF QUEBEC AND LABRADOR
SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTE

AGENDA

November 7, 2023

- 8:30am Welcome and warm drink
- 9am Opening circle
 - Édouard Kistabish, Elder, Abitibi8inni First Nation
 - Chantal Kistabish, Chief, Abitibi8inni First Nation
- 9:45am Introduction activity
- 10:45am Break
- 11am Building trust and relationship – planning to heal
 - Kim Chevrier, CCP Coordinator, Kebaowek First Nation
- Noon Lunch on site
- 1:15pm Identity, self-determination, youth engagement – planning with the future
 - CCP Youth Advisory Council, Kitigan Zibi Anishinabeg
- 2:45pm Break
- 3pm Integration activity
 - Emie Rainville, FNQLSDI
- 4pm Daily recap and closing circle
- 4:15pm Walking community visit (optional)
- 5pm Collective dinner (optional)

2023 CCP WORKSHOP

Mackawisiwin ka otcian

The strength of our roots

For teams in preplanning and planning

November 7-8, in Pikogan

FNQLSDI
FIRST NATIONS OF QUEBEC AND LABRADOR
SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTE

November 8, 2023

- 8:30am Welcome and warm drink
- 9am Opening circle
– Kimberly Roy, CCP Coordinator, Abitibi8inni First Nation
- 9:15am Bringing everyone on board and getting organized – planning together
– Marie-Eve Bouchard, CCP Coordinator, Essipit Innus First Nation
- 10:45am Break
- 11am From dream to reality – planning for implementation
– Roy Weistche, CCP Coordinator, Waskaganish Cree Nation
- Noon Lunch on site
- 1pm Mentoring workshop: moving ahead together
– Mentors
– FNQLSDI Team
- 3pm Break
- 3:15pm Closing circle
- 4pm End of the workshop

The FNQLSDI is committed to offsetting the GHG emissions related to its activities.
We'll be collecting transport-related information to calculate the event's emissions.
Thank you for your participation!
